

Name: _____

Lesson 7 review

1. One example of a developed country is _____

2. People in developing countries are likely to live in _____ areas and work on _____

3. The total value of goods and services that a country produces in a year is called _____

4. The per capita GDP is calculated by dividing a country's total _____ by its _____.

5. Which statement is true?

6. On average, adults need about 2,700 calories per day. How many calories do people in many developed countries consume per day? _____

7. Why does India have the largest number of hungry people in the world?

9. Americans make up just 5 percent of the world population. How much oil do they consume?

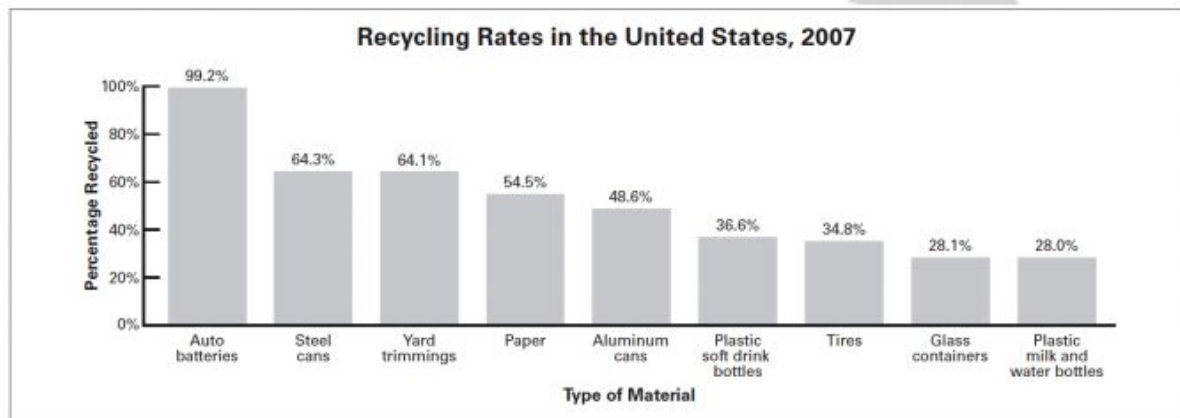

_____ of the oil pumped out of the ground each year

10. What would happen if every nation consumed oil at the same rate as the United States?

There would _____ oil to meet world demand.

11. Why is there a lack of computers in many villages in India?

12. Which statement about computers is true?

Vertical

Horizontal _____