PROCESSING 7

Imagine you are moving from England to one of the 13 American colonies in the 1740s. Write a farewell letter to your family. Your letter should include

- a date and salutation.
- a paragraph that identifies the colony in which you plan to settle and explains your reasons for moving there.
- a second paragraph that compares the colony you have chosen with the two other regions of colonial America. For example, if you chose Georgia—a Southern colony—you would compare it to the New England and Middle regions.
- writing that is free from spelling and grammatical errors.
